

Diedrich K. Willers Award Winners

---

This award is for contributions over a period of many years to the cumulative knowledge and stature of the human resources profession within higher education. The award normally is given to a practitioner whose persistent contributions, to the institution(s) served and the profession, have established her/him as an accepted leader within our field.

---

Jane Federowicz Rosemont College	2009
Pat Day Johns Hopkins University	2008
Peter Martel Bridgewater State College	2006
Curtis Powell Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute	2005
Jeanne E. Shader Community College of Allegheny County	2004
Molly Ambrose Bunker Hill Community College	2003
Lauren Turner Mount Hoyoake College	2002

Lynn Olson Clark University	2002
Shari L. Anderson Springfield College	1998
Anthony F. Panebianco State University of New York Institute of Technology	1997
Prisilla M. Comfort The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey	1996
E. Joyce Eulner Canisius College	1995
Stephen Otzenberger Rutgers State University of New Jersey	1994
Joan Tambling University System of New Hampshire	1993
Barbara Butterfeild Stanford University: University of Pennsylvania	1993
Martha Turnbull Ithica College	1992
Kenneth Thorpe The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey	1992
John M. Toller University of Connecticut	1991
Suzanne Forsyth American Council on Education	1990
Leo Sullivan Boston College	1989

Beth Warren University of Southern Maine	1988
Gary Wulf University System of New Hampshire	1987
Ken Cubitt Georgetown University	1986
James Fandel Massachusetts Institute of Technology	1985
James Elliott Penn State University	1984
Shelton King Duquesne University	1983
Robert Keene University of Maine at Orono	1982
Hal Messer Montgomery College, Maryland	1981
Arlyn Marks Fordham University	1980
Ray Fortunato Penn State University	1987