

Midwest CUPA-HR Newsletter

October, 2009

Greetings From The Chair

The Midwest Region Board is pleased and excited to invite you to join us at the Minneapolis Marriott City Center in beautiful downtown Minneapolis, Minnesota for the CUPA-HR Midwest Region Conference 2010 “Targeting Innovation”. Mark your calendars for April 11-14, 2010 and watch for conference information on the CUPA-HR Midwest website at <http://www.cupahrregions.org/midwest/index.asp>.

According to Steve Jobs, CEO Apple Computers, “Innovation distinguishes between a leader and a follower.” You will be listening to inspiring keynotes (three this year!), attending informative concurrent sessions and networking with your HR colleagues. Learn what others are doing and share your experiences. “Learning and innovation go hand in hand. The arrogance of success is to think that what you did yesterday will be sufficient for tomorrow.” William Pollard former CEO of ServiceMaster.

We will also take time to have some fun! In addition to a fun run/walk down along the Mississippi River, we will have a night out on the town at the Mill City Museum. The Minneapolis Marriott City Center is located directly adjacent to the Nicollet Mall with easy access at street level or through the skyway system if you are interested in getting in a little shopping. The Minneapolis light rail system is only a couple of blocks from the Marriott’s main entrance, so you might choose to take a trip out to the Mall of America.

Come and learn from the experts and from one another. Join us as we as we investigate together “Targeting Innovation”.

Gary Johnson, Chair MWR CUPA-HR

The Spring Conference gala event will be held at the Mill City Museum in Minneapolis. Association Leadership Program (ALP) Highlights

CUPA-HR national leaders, regional board members, chapter leaders, emerging leaders and corporate partners met for the annual Association Leadership Program (ALP) in Tempe, Arizona in July to exchange ideas, discuss priorities, and explore key issues for the profession. Keynote addresses by Allison Vaillancourt, vice president for human resources at The University of Arizona and past chair of CUPA-HR's national board, and Gardner Campbell, director of the Academy for Teaching and Learning at Baylor University, highlighted the conference. Vaillancourt discussed "Taking Care of HR When HR is Taking Care of Everyone Else" and Campbell's address was a Web 2.0 presentation regarding the use of social media in HR and ways to leverage Web 2.0 tools to interact with employees and students. Gardner will present a keynote address on this topic at the MWR Spring meeting in Minneapolis.

ALP attendees also discussed CUPA-HR's strategic priorities for 2009-10:

- Emerging Issues
- Learning and Professional Development
- Legislative Issues; and
- Communication and Outreach

ALP Chapter representatives L-R: Barbara Lay, Denison (Ohio) University, Debra Guilbert, Ohio Dominican University, Mary Gale, William Mitchell College of Law (Minnesota), Pam Dollard, University of Wisconsin Colleges, and MWR Emerging Leader Kelli Shuman, South Dakota School of Mines and Technology

Bob Barley Memorial Conference Grant Recipient for MWR Named

Congratulations to Rebecca A. Mann, HR Specialist, Edison State Community College in Piqua, Ohio, who has been named the MWR Bob Barley Memorial Conference Grant recipient for this year.

Each year, CUPA-HR awards four Bob Barley Memorial Conference Grants to assist individuals who may not otherwise be able to attend a regional or national CUPA-HR program. Grants are awarded to CUPA-HR members or potential members who traditionally have not had the opportunity to attend CUPA-HR educational programs. Grant monies can be used for a regional or national program and are intended for traditionally under-represented groups in the higher education HR profession. Grant applicants must demonstrate how they would benefit from receiving the grant. Applicants can have attended a previous program or seminar, but should express why they may not be able to attend a program without this grant. Nominations for next year's grant recipients will be announced in the spring of 2010.

The Bob Marley Memorial Conference Grant was established to acknowledge the many contributions of Bob Barley, an employee of ING and a long-standing supporter of CUPA-HR.
